

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. M A N U A L
OF THE
Reformed Protestant Dutch Church
IN N O R T H A M E R I C A .

BY EDWARD TANJORE CORWIN,
PASTOR AT PARAMUS.

NEW YORK:
BOARD OF PUBLICATION OF THE REF. PROT. DUTCH CHURCH, 61 FRANKLIN STREET.
1859.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1859, by

REV. THOMAS C. STRONG,

On behalf of the Board of Publication of the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church in North America, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the Southern District of New York.

Hosford & Co., Stationers and Printers,
67 and 69 William Street, N. Y.

HAVING been requested by a committee, which had been appointed to issue the Triennial Catalogue of the Alumni of our Seminary, to revise and correct that Catalogue for them, I thought it would be an improvement to add in some way the names of those ministers who had been educated under Livingston and his associates before the removal of the Seminary to New Brunswick. And upon executing this task, it appeared improper, among so many names respected and beloved, to omit those who had gone from our own shores to Europe, to be educated, or those who, with a missionary zeal, had left their fatherland to come to the inhospitable shores of the New World. And when all these names were collected, it would have seemed unjust to omit those faithful servants who have entered our ranks from other denominations.

But to give interest to the names, it was necessary to give the respective settlements of each—a task which, if it had been fully realized at the beginning, would hardly have been undertaken. Thus the Triennial Catalogue grew into this Manual, which, therefore, presents a complete list of all the ministers of our Church, with their respective settlements, and the dates of reception to and dismissal from each. To give completeness to the work, it was deemed necessary to add a list of the Synods, Classes, and Churches, with their respective dates of organization.

That there should be no errors in a work of this kind, could not be expected. Every precaution, however, has been taken to ensure accuracy. The sources whence information has been derived, were the Minutes of the General and Particular Synods, the Documentary History of New York, Church Records, Local Histories, Biographies, and Tradition. By a simple tabular system, the respective settlements of every minister, as contained in the Classical Reports, were brought before the eye at a glance.

In the list of Churches, references are also given to all the pastors of each individual church.

The names of several who have spent all their ministry in our Church, but who did not graduate at our Seminary, will be found in the list of those who have entered from other denominations.

² Situated in Nassau Street till 1844, when the building was leased for the Post Office. In 1836 the Middle Church also began to worship in an edifice in Ninth Street, (formerly the building of the Ninth Street Church, then extinct,) which was used by them till 1854, when it was disposed of, and is now known as the Central Church. In 1839 an edifice was built in La Fayette Place, which is now known as the Middle Church.

APPENDIX.

NOTE A. ON THE SECESSION.

In the Convention held in New York in 1774, for the purpose of perfecting the union of the two great parties previously existing in the Church—the Cœtus and the Conferentie—Solomon Froeligh was licensed to preach the Gospel, who, a half century after, divided the Church again by his secession, which may be considered as a continuation of the old Cœtus and Conferentie difficulties, or a contest between practical religion and dead orthodoxy.¹ This secession was consummated on October 22nd, 1822, at Schraalenbergh. They seceded, as they stated in their “Reasons,” on account of Hopkinsian errors of doctrine, and looseness of discipline. Consisting of five ministers, four of whom were at the time under sentence of suspension, and seven congregations, they styled themselves “The Classis of the True Reformed Dutch Church.” In 1824 they organized the General Synod of the True Reformed Dutch Church, and divided themselves into two Classes—that of Union, embracing the northern Churches—and of Hackensack, embracing the southern. During the first six years of their existence, they gathered twenty-six Churches, which includes all that have been connected with them. Several of these have since become extinct or declared themselves independent. Their present number is sixteen. The following view of them is drawn chiefly from their printed minutes, or from pamphlets on the subject:²

¹ A Particular Synod was in this year appointed for the whole Church, and transacted much of the business before done by General Synod, and hence General Synod for a time met only once in three years.

² On account of a number of Delegates being irregularly appointed, they adjourned without transacting any business, to meet at Greenwich in the fall. Then again, they were prevented from meeting by an epidemic raging in the city.

³ Henceforth the regular meetings were held in June.

NOTE C.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

Early efforts were made by the Dutch Church in the cause of Domestic Missions. In 1794, Rev. John Cornelison went up the Delaware, and across to the Susquehanna, and organized several Churches. Soon after, Rev. Stephen Ostrander went through Middle New York for the same purposes, and was partly successful. In 1796, Rev. Peter Labagh undertook a mission to Mercer County, Kentucky, and organized a Church at Salt River. Our obvious field of labor lying in the North and West, however, the management of this business was intrusted to the Classis of Albany until the year 1806, when a standing committee on the subject was appointed. Some years before the close of the last century, Rev. Robert McDowall had begun to labor in this cause in Canada. Through his and others' zeal, there were gathered in that region, between the years 1797 and 1819, something like twenty Churches. Different ministers at times spent a few months on tours among them, while their pulpits were supplied by General Synod. Among those who thus labored, besides the one before alluded to, were Bork, I. Labagh, Ten Eyck, P. D. Froeligh, Sickles, H. Ostrander, Beattie, Schermerhorn, Van Vechten, Gunn, Kirby, Duryea, Bogardus, and (Allen, Presbyterian.) But the distance at length (1819) induced Synod to abandon them, and they were incorporated with other denominations.

This same year General Synod directed that the Standing Committee on Mission hereafter locate at New York instead of Albany. Little was now done in the cause. But in 1822 "The Missionary Society of the Reformed Dutch Church" was organized, and the Board of Managers of this Society became the Standing Committee on Missions. They employed ministers and licentiates to visit and preach to weak and destitute congregations, while with their funds they also assisted feeble churches.

The cause now began to prosper. The reports each year grew more interesting. Efforts were enlarged; funds increased. In 1828, a Northern Board of Agency was appointed, which had charge of the work within the bounds of the Particular Synod of Albany, except the Classis of Ulster. In 1829, the propriety of appointing a General Agent to visit the churches, and to present the subject before them, was suggested, and the Rev. J. F. Schermerhorn was appointed. His labors were crowned with great success. Contributions were greatly enlarged, and many new churches were organized. In 1830, General Synod deemed it proper to take the management of the Missionary operations of our Church into her own hands, and elected a Committee on Missions, and directed the Missionary Society to alter their constitution to conform thereto. The Board of Managers, however, refused to accede to the request. In 1831, therefore, Synod resolved to appoint a Board of Missions, to be known by the name of "The Board of Missions of the General Synod of the Reformed Dutch Church," to which shall be confided all the Missionary concerns of the Church. The Rev. J. F. Schermerhorn was continued the General Agent of this Board. But in 1832 he resigned, received the thanks of Synod for his fidelity and success, and Rev. Henry A. Dumont was elected in his place.

The next year, Synod deeming the churches sufficiently awakened on the subject, discontinued the Agency. But the cause immediately languished. About this time, however, the old Missionary Society became auxiliary to the New Board, and General Synod again recommended to the Board the expediency of employing an Agent. The system of classical agents was then adopted, but it soon became evident that a General Agent was necessary to insure success. Churches now began to be planted in the Western States. Fairview, (Illinois,) was organized in 1837. In 1842 a financial Secretary was chosen to take the general superintendence of both the Foreign and Domestic Missions, the Board of Education, and the Sabbath School Union. Rev. Ransford Wells was elected to this place. In 1843, in consequence of the enlarged operations of the Domestic Board, and consequent increased services required of the Secretary, a division of the duties of his office was made—those pertaining to the Western Missions being placed in the hands of Dr. Taylor—and those pertaining to the Missions of the Middle States, in the hands of Rev. Geo. H. Fisher. The cause was now in a prosperous condition. Churches were organized and assisted. In 1844, however, Dr. Wells resigned, and the Church was again without a General Agent, and the effects were plainly visible. Soon after, great accessions were unexpectedly received to our Church by emigrants from Holland, who were driven thence by religious persecution, and sought an asylum in the West. They naturally looked for counsel and assistance to us. Our operations were, therefore, necessarily greatly enlarged. The Board was reconstituted, and in 1849 our present successful Secretary, Rev. John Garretson, D.D., was appointed.

The Holland brethren were considered as presenting peculiar claims, and the Board "deemed it proper to send a special agent to visit such as had settled in New York, Michigan, and Wisconsin, to ascertain their state, character, and prospects." Dr. I. N. Wyckoff was duly commissioned, who returned with a most encouraging and satisfactory statement.

The Germans settling in our cities and the West, now also began to attract the attention of the Board.

For the last eight or ten years the cause of Domestic Missions seems to have been invigorated with a new life. Each succeeding year has witnessed enlarged plans, and means have increased proportionably. In 1854, it was "Resolved to commence new enterprises in every prominent place, whether East or West, with special reference to forming a continuous line of churches, from the Atlantic, westward." A church building fund was about this time started, to aid in the erection of new houses of worship, and which has proved of great service. There are now more than sixty Holland and German Churches, which have all, or nearly all, been organized through the agency of the Domestic Board.

NOTE D.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The subject of Foreign Missions in our Church was at first committed to the same Board which had charge of our Domestic. Indeed, when that Board was organized, this subject seems to have been hardly thought of. In 1818, Synod had referred to their consideration the first annual report of the United Foreign Missionary Society, and it was Resolved, That this Synod earnestly recommend this institution to the patronage and support of the several judicatures and congregations under their care." At the same session, it was also "Resolved, That at some convenient time at every session of General Synod, a Missionary Sermon be preached before the Synod, and a collection be taken up for Missionary purposes, and that Rev. J. F. Schermerhorn preach such sermon at the next meeting of Synod." In 1822, immediately after the organization of "The Missionary Society of Reformed Dutch Church," Synod recommended that all our churches take up collections at the monthly concert for prayer, for the support of the United Foreign Missionary Society, or the Committee of Missions, as they shall please.

In 1823, Rev. John Scudder began a mission in the Island of Ceylon. In 1826, with the concurrence of Synod, the United Foreign Missionary Society amalgamated with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. In 1829, Rev. David Abeel left our ranks for China, under the care of the American Board. Soon after, our Church seems to have awakened to the importance of the subject. A desire appeared, to establish a mission under the auspices and direction of our own denomination. The question was, whether to operate independently, or to combine with others. For the first, want of experience was fatal. But an agreement was made with the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions as would enable General Synod to maintain a mission of their own, and at the same time avail themselves of the experience of the American Board. Thus, in 1832, "The Board of Foreign Missions of Reformed Dutch Church" was organized, and was in union with the American Board. They then took under their care the missionary stations occupied by Rev. Mr. Scudder in India, (Ceylon,) and Rev. Mr. Abeel in China.

In 1834, Mr. Abeel, at his own suggestion, was directed to visit Holland, to confer with the Netherlands Missionary Society in reference to organizing a mission within the colonial possessions of the Dutch Government in the East Indian Archipelago; it being supposed that on account of our descent from, and affinity to the Church of Holland, special favors and privileges might be secured to us. His visit was such as seemed to warrant the organization of a mission there. Dr. Abeel passed through this country in 1835, and visited many of our churches, which was attended with the most happy results. Jacob Ennis, of the class of 1835, and Nevius, Youngblood and Doty, of the class of 1836, devoted themselves to the Missionary work, and were commissioned by the American Board, and with their wives, together with Miss Azubah Caroline Condict, sister of Mrs. Nevius, departed for the Island of Java—departed while the Synod was in session. As early as this, the propriety of a dissolution with the American Board was suggested, but was not entertained by Synod. In 1837, Messrs. Thompson and Waring offered themselves to the Board. Pecuniary troubles delayed their departure, and Mr. Waring was afterwards prevented from going. Mr. Pohlman and wife, however, accompanied Mr. Thompson in 1838. But the mission in Java met with trouble from the Dutch Government in that island, and the missionaries began to turn their eyes to Borneo as their future field of labor. Mr. Doty took up his residence at Sambas, in that island, and Messrs. Nevius and Youngblood, with Miss Condict, at Pontianak. Messrs. Thompson and Pohlman were obliged to reside almost a year at Batavia, by the Dutch Government, while Dr. Abeel was at the same time at Macao. In 1842 all the missionaries except the last concentrated their efforts at Pontianak. There a school was established for Malay children, under Youngblood, and a school for Chinese, under Pohlman.

During the same year, Messrs. Van Doren and Stryker arrived at Batavia, and Mr. Steele left for the same place some time after.

In 1843, Dr. Scudder visited this country and aroused the churches.

About this time, by the death of Mr. Stryker and the return of Messrs. Van Doren and Nevius, through ill health, and the continued onerous restrictions of the Dutch Government, the Borneo mission began to wane. The brethren were embarrassed in their operations. China seemed to present a more inviting field, and Dr. Abeel urged them to follow the present leadings of Providence. The prudential committee of the American Board, therefore, transferred Doty and Pohlman to China. But three laborers were now left in Borneo, and everything looked dark to them. Cheering intelligence, however, continued to be received from Dr. Abeel. In 1844 the brethren in Borneo obtained some privileges which encouraged them again, but they proved temporary. Dr. Abeel was obliged to return again to the United States, on account of ill health, and Thompson, Steele, and Youngblood had now determined to remain permanently in Borneo.

But now the American Board proposed to establish a mission among the Tamul people in Southern India, and to transfer those brethren there. They strongly objected. Interest in the cause at home declined, and for a time the Dutch Church did not pay the expenses of her own Missions. Notwithstanding the repeated calls of the brethren for more help, no one offered himself for the work. In 1847 Thompson died. In 1849, ill health brought Mr. Youngblood and wife back to this country, and Mr. Steele was summoned to return, both to recruit his health and secure, if possible, reinforcements. Thus Borneo was left vacant.

About this time, however, the first church was opened in Amoy, but the joy was

d with sorrow, as Pohlman had been shipwrecked. But Mr. and Mrs. Doty¹ enabled to pursue their labors at Amoy with zealous devotion and encouraging 847, Rev. John V. N. Talmage had embarked for China, where he arrived in due time. The two brethren in this field were encouraged by the Spirit's aid. They sent over frequent appeals, but received no response till Rev. J. S. Non devoted himself to the work, and sailed in the fall of 1855.

From all this time Dr. Scudder was laboring with encouraging success in India; the Island of Ceylon, and afterwards among the Tamul people, about midway between Bombay and Madras. In 1844 he was joined by his son Henry, and in 1851 William and Joseph. In 1853 they requested to be organized into a Classis, which was necessary to their convenience, and in 1854 Synod directed Dr. Scudder to organize the Classis of Arcot. Early in the next year he was called to his reward. In the fall of the same year, however, two more of his sons, Jared and Ezekiel, with their wives, and accompanied by their sister, started for the scene of their father's

So that now the mission consists of five brethren, all the sons of the lamented Dr. Scudder. They have five churches, with a membership of a hundred and fifty souls.

In 1856 a dissolution with the American Board began to be seriously pondered. The formation of the Classis of Arcot perhaps hastened it; and in the following year a unanimous and happy dissolution was effected. Our Church now possessed the experience, and believed she could affect more for the glory of her Master independent organization.

The prospects of our Missions are now brighter than they have ever been before. Rev. Wm. W. Scudder has been in this country about a year and a half, arousing churches on the subject, and has just started back, accompanied with Rev. J. Mayou and their wives. Several months since, Dr. Henry Martyn Scudder his brother in this country, and is now engaged in the same duties, viz., visiting churches. Last fall, Rev. Messrs. Rapalje and Ostrom, with his wife, sailed for China, to reinforce the brethren there. Rev. Mr. Joralemon has been forced to leave on account of his wife's health. Japan has also opened her doors, and a voice came from thence, inviting us to occupy that new and extensive field. The Board has appointed Rev. Samuel R. Brown, (formerly a missionary in China,) to that important position, and before long he will embark for the scene of his future labors.

EDUCATION.

The Dutch Church has always prized a learned ministry. The divines of Holland were noted for their erudition. Most of the ministers, if not all, who were sent to this country were men of learning. Those who first consecrated themselves to the ministry on the American shores were sent to Holland to complete their education. Samuel Megapolensis was the first instance. Having studied the liberal branches at Cambridge, New England, he went to the University of Utrecht to study Theology, and returned well equipped, at least as far as earthly learning was concerned, to preach the Gospel. It was generally thought, and that for many years, that an education in Europe was indispensable to prepare a man for the ministry. It was this idea which actuated the minds of so many during that long contest which rent the Church during the middle of the last century. But this sending to Holland occasioned great delay and expense, and some began to think that it would be no great sin to educate, license, and ordain them this side the water. In 1737, nine men (see p. 105,) met in the City of New York, to deliberate on this subject. They drew up a "Ground Article," as they called it, stating their views, and this was the first attempt to obtain some general superintendence of their own ecclesiastical affairs. They styled themselves "The Cœtus."¹ It was nine years before the plan was approved in Holland; but at length they were fairly organized in 1748. The opponents to this plan organized themselves into a body, in 1755, called "The Conferentie." These were composed of those men who had been born and educated in Holland, while the Cœtus consisted chiefly of those who had been obliged to go to Holland for education or ordination. The spirit of progress, and of piety even, seemed to be with the latter, while formality and deadness of faith seemed to be the characteristics of the former. The Cœtus, by express permission, occasionally licensed a young man, and this was even done a few times by the Conferentie. But a most bitter feeling prevailed between the parties. At length, through the well-directed efforts of Dr. J. H. Livingston, a plan of union was formed upon the condition of the immediate appointment of a Theological Professor by the Church in Holland. The Cœtus had already procured a Charter for Queens (now Rutgers) College, with the express design of preparing in it young men for the ministry. Immediately after the Revolution, in 1784, Dr. L. was appointed to fill the important station of Professor, to perform the duties of which, he relinquished half his usual services in the city, and half his salary, receiving only the approbation of Synod in return, they being unable to promise him any compensation with certainty. This was the beginning of our Theological Seminary. The Doctor delivered his inaugural address in Latin, in the old Dutch Church in Garden Street, on the nineteenth of May, 1785.

A number of students attended his lectures. His school was at times on Long Island, either at Jamaica, Bedford, or Flatbush, and at times in the city. On account of the expense of boarding in the city, Dr. Harmanus Meyer was appointed an Assistant Lector in Theology, at Pompton Plains, in 178—, which office he held till his death in 1791.

The necessity of creating a Professorial Fund was at once felt, and early measures were taken to effect this object. In 1794, Dr. Dirck Romeyn made a lengthy report on the subject. (See Minutes of General Synod.) Subscriptions were begun, but not coming up to expectations, the subject was dropped for a time, the Synod resolving in 1797 that it was inexpedient under present circumstances to take any further measures for raising the fund proposed; and to divide labor and save expense, at this same session they appointed two additional professors—Dr. Froeligh, at Hackensack, and Dr. Romeyn, at Schenectady.

Thus the matter rested till 1804, when General Synod determined to exert themselves again to endow one Professorship in Theology. The assistants appointed in 1797, however, were continued in their office, enjoying all the honors and emoluments thereof during their lives, or good behavior. At the same time, the Rev. John Bassett and the Rev. Jeremiah Romeyn were appointed Professors of the Hebrew Language.

In 1807, the Trustees of Queens College declared to Synod that they intended to re-open the College, and solicited their approbation. Committees from each were appointed to confer, and they drew up a covenant for the union of the Professorate with the College, in which the Trustees promised to combine its literary interests with a decided support to evangelical truth, and the promotion of a faithful and able ministry in the Dutch Church, and to use the moneys collected by them in the State of New York for the support of a Professorship in Theology in the College, and with which, also, to assist poor and pious young men preparing for the ministry. The Trustees were also permitted by General Synod to hold the funds collected for the Professorship, and were bound to call such Professor as should be appointed by Synod. A permanent Board, "The Board of Superintendents," was also appointed at the same time, to assist the Professor in arranging the course of instruction, and to examine students in Theology previous to their examination by Classis for licensure. The Synod promised also to provide a Theological Library. The Professorial Fund now rapidly increased, and in 1808 the Trustees called Dr. L. to the Professorship of Theology in Queens College, promising him the sum of $750 for his services. They also wished him to take the Presidency of the College, which he at first refused, but finally accepted. He did not immediately remove to New Brunswick, but waited till the Churches under his care should be somewhat provided for, and also lest his removal might retard the increase of the Professorial Fund. In 1810 this had been considerably augmented, and the Trustees now offered $650 additional to the salary previously offered. He now, after a pastorate of forty years, and a professorship without compensation of twenty-six years in the city, broke all the ties he had there formed, and removed to New Brunswick.

About the same time, he wrote a letter to his venerable brother in the ministry, Rev. Elias Van Bunschooten, (See New Brunswick Review, February, 1855,) suggesting the propriety of his devoting a portion of his property to the benefit of the Theological Institution. The epistle was not in vain, but resulted in his endowing the Trustees of Queens (now Rutgers) College in the sum of fourteen thousand six hundred and forty dollars, which was afterwards increased, by a bequest in his will, to seventeen thousand. The income of this Fund was to be appropriated to the support and education "of pious youth who hope they have a call of God to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ." This Fund at present somewhat exceeds twenty thousand.

Fears were entertained for the success of the Seminary on account of the waning of the College about this time, (1813). A plan was proposed in 1815 to the Synod, to unite the Professorate and the College, forming a Theological College—a Professor of Theology, of Biblical Criticism, and of Ecclesiastical History being appointed by Synod, and a Professor of Mathematics by the Trustees; the Theological Professors also having certain duties to perform, to be designated by the Trustees; and that the two Funds be blended in one, with an understanding that Synod raise annually half the support of the Professors whom they appoint. The plan met with approbation, but the Trustees, being embarrassed in their operations, were not able to carry it out.

In order to relieve the venerable Doctor, about this time (1815) Synod appointed Rev. John Schureman, D.D., as Professor of Pastoral Theology and Ecclesiastical History, who continued to discharge these duties till his death, in 1818.

During this period the propriety of removing the Seminary to New York was seriously discussed, and Dr. L. seems to have been in favor of it. But the Trustees who held the funds not consenting, the idea was abandoned.

Upon the death of Schureman, Synod appointed Rev. J. S. Cannon to teach Ecclesiastical History, Church Government, and Pastoral Theology; and Rev. J. S. Mabon to teach the Hebrew and Greek Languages. These appointments, however, were but temporary. In 1819, Rev. John Ludlow was appointed the Professor of Biblical Literature and Ecclesiastical History, which office he filled till 1823, when the Rev. John De Witt was chosen his successor. Some years before, Miss Rebecca Knox had also left $2,000, the income of which was to be appropriated to the support of indigent students preparing for the ministry.

The further endowment of the Professorate now weighed heavily upon the Doctor's mind. He felt that, unless speedy measures were taken for this end, the institution must die. In 1822, subscriptions were started, Dr. Livingston heading them with $500, and soon a sufficient sum for the support of a second professorship was subscribed in the southern half of the Church.

In 1825, just as this endowment had been completed, Dr. Livingston was called to his reward.

Philip Milledollar, D.D., was chosen his successor, and also became President of the College, which offices he held till 1841, when he resigned.

The Particular Synod of Albany then took measures to raise funds within their bounds to endow a third Professorship. The subscriptions were soon filled up, although it was several years before the moneys were all collected. Thus the Seminary was placed upon a firm foundation.

The General Synod had also in the meantime purchased the College edifice and grounds of the Trustees, and through their united efforts the College was revived under the name of Rutgers, in 1825.

The following year Dr. James S. Cannon was appointed to the Chair of Ecclesiastical History, Church Government, and Pastoral Theology, it having become vacant by the death of Dr. Woodhull, who had but just entered upon his duties.

In 1828 the old Professoral Fund, which had been the cause of much misunderstanding, was transferred to General Synod by the Trustees of the College. About the same time, Isaac Heyer left $2,500 to endow a scholarship in the Seminary, and a few years after, Henry Rutgers, Stephen Van Rensselaer, and Wm. R. Rensselaer each endowed a $1,500 scholarship; the respective capitals of which were afterwards allowed to accumulate, to meet increased appropriations to the beneficiaries.

In 1828, a Board of Education was organized, to act more efficiently in the educational concerns of the Church, and to which, having been remodelled in 1831, "were committed all the educational interests of the Church, as well as the immediate care of all the beneficiaries." Through their instrumentality considerable moneys were collected year by year, and applied to proper purposes, the Secretary of the Board of Missions also acting in behalf of this Board.

In 1832, Dr. John De Witt having died, Dr. Alexander McClelland was chosen to fill the department of Oriental Literature, Biblical Criticism, and Exegesis, which station he occupied till 1851, when he resigned.

In 1834, Peter Stryker, of Flatbush, endowed a scholarship, to be known as the Cornell scholarship, giving $2,350, and about the same time one by John Wyckoff, of New Shannock, was established, of $2,500.

The following year, Mrs. Margaret Burgess, of New York, likewise established one of $1,700, while from the surplus in the donation of Peter Stryker, in the Cornell scholarship, another was soon formed by accumulation, called the Stryker scholarship.

In 1835 the Theological Professors were formed into a Faculty, to hold monthly meetings, and exercise a general supervision over the students. The prayer was now no longer for money, but for men. The Professorships were well endowed, and the scholarships were more in number than the applicants.

In 1837 the Rev. Nicholas Lansing left $600 to the Board of Education, and in the following year three new scholarships were endowed, viz., the John Clark scholarship, $3,000; the Bogert scholarship, $1,700, suffered to accumulate to $2,000; and the Isaac L. Kip scholarship, $1,700; while in the following year again, two more were established, viz., the Tannake Turk scholarship, $1,700, and the Richard Cadmus scholarship of $2,000.

In 1841, upon the resignation of Professor Milledollar, the office of President of the College was separated from the Professorship, and Dr. Samuel A. Van Vranken, the present incumbent, was chosen to the Chair of Didactic Theology.

In 1845 the South Classis of Long Island declared their willingness to become responsible for the education of two beneficiaries.

In 1846 the Synod received for educational purposes $4,451, principal and interest from the estate of Mrs. Hornbeck, which had been in chancery for some years, from which were established two scholarships, bearing the names of the donor and of her husband.

In 1850, James Bogert endowed another scholarship of $2,000, to be known as the James Bogert, Jr., scholarship.

The following year, Dr. William H. Campbell was chosen to fill the Chair of Oriental Literature, &c., made vacant by the resignation of Dr. McClelland.

In 1852, Dr. Cannon, after a faithful service of more than a quarter of a century in the Seminary of our Church, was called to a new sphere of action by his Master; and Rev. Dr. Ludlow, having declined several previous offers, was again chosen, and consented to fill this responsible station.

In 1853, Theodore Cuyler, Esq., gave $2,000 in honor of his deceased father, Rev. C. C. Cuyler, D.D., to endow a scholarship, to be called the "Cuyler scholarship."

Among the Hollanders in Michigan there had been organized an Academy—the germ of our second College—in which are preparing many young men for our higher institutions at New Brunswick. It was at first under the care of a Mr. Taylor, and now in charge of Rev. John Van Vleck, assisted by Rev. Giles Vandewall.

In 1854, Miss Margaret Ten Eyck left a legacy of $4,000, to be appropriated by the Board of Education.¹

The want of a Theological Hall separate from the College building began to be felt more and more; and the fact that several young men having predilections for our Church had been compelled, on account of the high rates of board, to go to other Seminaries, and were thus probably lost to our Church, brought matters to a crisis. The students, at the suggestion of the Professors, drew up a memorial, stating their difficulties and their wants, and which paper passed through the hands of the Faculty to the Board of Superintendents.² The Board took immediate action upon it, and appointed a committee, consisting of the Professors, Rev. Dr. Chambers, Rev. J. Mason Ferris, and Rev. Thomas C. Strong, to procure plans of a Theological Hall, and to collect funds sufficient for its erection. Their efforts were crowned with complete success. At the personal solicitation of Dr. Ludlow, Mrs. Anna Hertzog, of Philadelphia, donated $30,000 for the erection of such Hall, to be called "The Peter Hertzog Theological Hall." Col. James Neilson, of New Brunswick, then gave a lot of ground, valued at $14,000; Mr. James Bishop gave an adjoining lot, valued at $1,200; and Mr. Charles P. Dayton gave so much of his property as lay between the plot given by Col. Neilson and the street; and an adjoining lot to complete the square was obtained by purchase, the money for that purpose ($2,000) having been generously given by Messrs. Francis, and Wessell Wessells, of Paramus, N. J. The rooms were furnished by the donations of different individuals, mostly ladies in the Church. In it are dormitories, refectory, lecture rooms, chapel, and library.

¹ There is also a Freeborn scholarship now accumulating, ($1,085,) and a piece of real estate given by Moses Cowan, ($1,200,) but neither are as yet productive.

In 1855 the Board of Education appointed Rev. J. A. H. Cornell, D.D., their Corresponding Secretary and General Agent, who has been most successful in collecting funds for educational interests. Many Churches have, through his instrumentality, been induced to promise $150 a year towards defraying the expenses of beneficiaries.

In 1857, Dr. Ludlow, our beloved Professor, after a protracted illness, was called to a better world. The Rev. Dr. Woodbridge, of New Brunswick, was called to succeed him, who is the present incumbent in the department of Ecclesiastical History, Pastoral Theology, and Church Government.

At the same time, Rev. Dr. Bethune consented to visit the Seminary each week, for the purpose of teaching the delivery of sermons with the conduct of public worship.

Thus has God graciously smiled upon the efforts of successive years, and at last brought our institution into a large place. There are now about 100 students in various stages of progress, preparing for the ministry. Of these, fifty are now in the Seminary. Synod has, moreover, upwards of $60,000 invested for the support of indigent students, and the funds contributed during the past year, to be appropriated directly to this object, amounted to about $6,000. The permanent Professoral Fund amounts to between $80,000 and $90,000.

May God put it into the hearts of many more to cast in of their abundance, and swell the tide of this stream which is making glad the city of our God.

BOARD OF SABBATH SCHOOL UNION.

The Board of Sabbath School Union is beginning to wear a healthy appearance again, after a long and sickly existence. For many years it was almost disowned, Synod having passed a resolution that its funds should be paid over to the American Sunday School Union. Recently, this resolution was rescinded, and the Board revived. The Church is now listening to its claims, and schools are eagerly flocking to its standard. There are connected with the Dutch Church about 600 Sunday Schools, and 50,000 teachers and scholars. Nearly half of these schools are now in connection with the Sabbath School Board of their own Church, and before long, it is hoped, all will be in one UNION. This Board was under the supervision of the Secretary of the Board of Missions, Education, &c., for a long time, but now each of these are flourishing under independent secretaries, and the Sabbath School Board, peculiarly favored in securing the services of Rev. R. B. Campfield, Jr., a gentleman of great experience in the Sabbath School cause, is looking forward with large expectations of increasing usefulness and success. It will provide a literature for our schools, both original and borrowed, and carry forward missionary operations in the West, and thus, by planting schools, lay the foundations for many future Churches.
